Victims of Trafficking and Violence Protection Act of 2000 (VTVPA) (T Visa)

Congress passed the Victims of Trafficking and Violence Protection Act of 2000 (VTVPA) in order to provide:

Individuals who have been victimized in the most severe fashion with the ability to: remain in the US (temporarily and in some cases longer) and receive federal and state assistance; Protections for certain crime victims including victims of crimes against women; and Law enforcement agencies with a comprehensive law that will enable them to pursue the prosecution and conviction of traffickers.

Dependents

- T-2 visas - spouses of T-1 applicants
- T-3 visas - children of T-1 applicants
- T-4 visas - parents of T-1 applicants who are children
