ANSWER:

Watch the Video on this FAQ - Effect on green card and naturalization of using public or government benefits ^[2]

Video Transcript:

Under the current regulations the prohibited benefits are:

1. they have to be means-tested benefits which means they are based upon how much money you make.
2. either they must be used to supplement your income like receiving some kind of a cash or cash equivalent or they should be giving you a long term medical facility residence. You can look up for the particular policy at the USCIS website.

You should have a lawyer research this issue for you specifically, but there is no need for you to hold back your naturalization. More... ^[2]
