Extension of the J-1 Entry Date for International Medical Graduates to Qualify for "Conrad 30" Waiver

Extension of the J-1 Entry Date for International Medical Graduates to Qualify for "Conrad 30" Waiver ^[1]

Submitted by Editor on May 21st 2009

USCIS reminds customers that Public Law 111-9, signed by President Obama on March 20, 2009, extends the date until Sept. 30, 2009 by which international medical graduates have to have been granted J-1 nonimmigrant status in order to later qualify for the "Conrad 30" program. Before this latest extension was granted, the most recent sunset date for qualifying J-1 admission was March 6, 2009.
