Naturalization Policy Regarding Adjustment of Status

Naturalization Policy Regarding Adjustment of Status ^[1]

Submitted by Chief Editor on Nov 19th 2012

Has USCIS discussed the new Naturalization policy regarding the review of the underlying adjustment case? Should clients come prepared to discuss their marriages, for example?

ANSWER:

Review of the underlying adjustment of status is not a new policy. Officers have always had the authority to look back at the underlying adjustment, at any time, and doing so is not a new process.
